

Meade's Address to the Army of the Potomac.
WASHINGTON, May 14.—Dispatches dated Headquarters Army of the Potomac, May 13, 12 M., have been received. General Meade has issued the following congratulatory address to his troops:—

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, May 13, 1864.—Soldiers:—The moment has arrived when your Commanding General feels authorized to address you in terms of congratulation.

For eight days and nights, almost without intermission, in rain and sunshine, you have been gallantly fighting a desperate foe, in positions naturally strong, and rendered doubly so by intrenchments.

You have compelled him to abandon his fortifications on the Rapidan, to retire and attempt to stop your onward progress, and now he has abandoned the last intrenched position, so tenaciously held, suffering a loss in all, of eighteen guns, twenty-two colors, and eight thousand prisoners, including two general officers.

Your heroic deeds and noble endurance of fatigue and privations will ever be memorable.

Let us return thanks to God for the mercy thus shown us, and ask earnestly for its continuation.

Soldiers! your work is not yet over. The enemy must be pursued, and, if possible, over come. The courage and fortitude you have displayed renders your Commanding General confident your future efforts will result in success.

While we mourn the loss of many gallant comrades, let us remember the enemy must have suffered equal if not greater losses.

We shall soon receive reinforcements, which he cannot expect. Let us determine to continue vigorously the work so well begun, and under God's blessing in a short time the object of our labors will be accomplished.

GEORGE G. MEADE,
Major General Commanding.
Official—S. WILLIAMS, A. A. G.
(Approved,) U. S. GRANT,
Lieutenant General Commanding
the Armies of the United States.
